Gulaga Mountain & The Creation Story Retreat

Hi friends,

I am very excited to be organising, together with Ngaran Ngaran Cultural Awareness, another group retreat to Gulaga Mountain this May. Those who came on this weekend last year shared a very special experience that can only be felt and not explained. This gave me inspiration to organise another 'Walk On Country' for more people to be able to experience her energy and beauty.

At Gulaga Mountain, Uncle Max Harrison, Aboriginal elder of the Yuin people, and his grandsons share the Creation Story and reveal the significance of the giant stone beings on top of Mt Gulaga. This sacred mountain has now been returned to the custodianship of the Yuin people.

I have been moved and inspired by Uncle Max and his grandson Dwayne - both very humble men who share their stories and speak about relationship to land, respect, forgiveness and oneness.

If you are drawn to be part of this experience please email me at gaby@kilife.com.au or call me, Gaby Bonello, on 0414367944.
